

Contents

Acknowledgements

List of figures

Introduction	19
The pleasures of walking	22

Chapter 1 Behaviour in the countryside 25

Damage	26
Farm animals	26
Dogs	29
Trespass	29
Wild flowers and fruits	30
Hygiene and sanitation	30
Litter	31
Fires	31
Pubs	32
Women in the countryside	32
The Countryside Code for England and Wales	32

Chapter 2 Walking techniques 37

Path surfaces	38
Path furniture	40
Bibliography	40

Chapter 3 Clothing, footwear & equipment 41

Clothing	43
Waterproof materials	44
Design of waterproof clothing	47
Waterproof garments	47
Care of waterproofs	49

Contents

Garments worn under waterproofs	50
Base layer	50
Midwear	50
Soft shells	51
Belay jackets	51
Layering	51
Legwear	52
Footwear	52
Hats	57
Gloves	57
Equipment	58
Rucksacks	58
Bum bags	58
Poles	59
Hydration systems	61
Feminine hygiene	62
Purchasing clothing and equipment	62
Gear tests	63
Bibliography	64
Chapter 4 Topographic maps	65
Features of topographic maps	65
Scale	65
Grid systems	67
The National Grid	67
How to give a grid reference	68
The Irish Grid	72
Grids used in the Channel Islands	73
Depiction of relief	73
Contours	73
Spot heights	77
Accuracy of topographic maps	77
Selection and omission	78
Distortion and simplification	78
Date of survey	79
Bibliography	80

Contents

Chapter 5 Maps used by walkers in the British Isles 81

Ordnance Survey maps	82
Ordnance Survey conventions	84
Landranger maps	87
Explorer maps	88
Other Ordnance Survey maps	89
Other maps used by walkers	89
Harvey maps	90
Care of maps	91
Bibliography	92

Chapter 6 Map-reading and basic navigation techniques 95

Making a start	96
Aids to navigation	99
Compasses	100
Baseplate compasses	101
Factors affecting compass accuracy	103
How to use a baseplate compass	104
Measuring distances on the map	112
Calculating the time it will take to complete a walk	115
Measuring distances on the ground	119
Other tools used in navigation	121
Altimeters	121
Pedometers	124
Bibliography	125

Chapter 7 A map-reading exercise 126

Chapter 8 Advanced navigation techniques 135

Handrails	135
Tick features	136
Overshoot features	136
Collecting features	137
Transits	137
Aiming off	138

Contents

Backbearings	140
Boxing	140
Aspect of the slope	140
Contouring	142
Route cards	143
Foul weather navigation	145
Walking on a bearing	145
Attack points	147
Area searches	148
Relocation	150
Relocation techniques	152
Bibliography	155
Chapter 9 Global navigation satellite systems	156
Definition of terms	156
Description of the Global Navigation Satellite System	157
Handheld satnavs	159
Using a handheld satnav	160
Waypoints	162
The goto	162
Routes	163
Tracks	163
Maps and mapping software	163
Limitations of handheld satnavs	166
Summary	169
Bibliography	170
Chapter 10 Footpath guides	171
Useful features	172
How to judge a footpath guide	173
Limitations of footpath guides	173
How to write and publish a footpath guide	174
Bibliography	177

Contents

Chapter 11 Safety, first aid, the weather, hazards & mountain rescue	178
First aid	179
Blisters	179
Ticks	180
Sprained ankles	181
Sunburn and windburn	182
Hyperthermia	182
Hypothermia	183
Dehydration	185
The weather	185
Lightning	186
Fording rivers and streams	188
Dealing with emergencies	191
Seeking help	193
Search and rescue services	193
Bibliography	194
Chapter 12 Walking in winter	196
Upland walking	197
Snow and ice	197
Cornices	197
Snow bridges	198
Avalanches	199
Blizzards	199
White-outs	199
Frostnip and frostbite	200
Clothing	200
Equipment	201
Ice-axes	201
Crampons	203
Goggles	204
Navigation	204
Bibliography	205

Contents

Chapter 13 Walking in England and Wales	206
National parks	207
Areas of outstanding natural beauty	208
Access	209
Long distance paths	210
National trails	210
Recreational routes	212
Other long distance paths	212
European long distance paths	212
Bibliography	213
Chapter 14 Rights of way and access law in England and Wales	214
Definition of terms	215
Definitive Maps	217
Alterations to the rights of way network	218
Grounds for diverting rights of way	219
Grounds for extinguishing rights of way	220
Creation of rights of way	220
Duties, responsibilities and problems on rights of way	221
Obstructions	221
Ploughing and other surface disturbances	222
Crops	222
Gates and stiles	222
Bulls	223
Dangerous animals	223
Waymarking and signposting	223
Footbridges	224
Misleading notices	224
Trespass	224
Enforcing the law	225
Notifying the highway authority	225
Private prosecutions	226
Access	226
Statutory restrictions on access	227

Contents

Contraventions of the law on access	228
Landowner's liability	228
Maps and location of access land	228
Bibliography	229
Chapter 15 Walking in Scotland	230
Legal aspects	231
Access	231
Public paths	232
Rights of way	232
Core paths	233
Where to walk	233
National parks	234
Long distance paths	234
Great trails	234
Other long distance paths	235
Bibliography	236
Chapter 16 Walking in Ireland.....	237
1:50,000 maps covering all Ireland	238
Republic of Ireland	238
Rights of way	238
Maps	239
Leisure series	239
EastWest Mapping	239
Harvey maps	240
National parks	241
National Waymarked Trails	241
Coillte Recreational Forests	241
Slí na Sláinte (Path to Health)	241
National Waymarked Ways	242
Walking organizations	242
Northern Ireland	243
Public rights of way	243
Permissive access	244
Maps	244

Contents

Where to walk	245
Long Distance Paths	245
Quality Walks	245
The Ulster Federation of Rambling Clubs	246
Bibliography	246
Chapter 17 Walking in the Isle of Man & the Channel Isles....	247
The Isle of Man	247
Channel Isles	248
Bibliography	249
Chapter 18 Walking holidays	250
Types of holiday	250
Centre-based trips	251
Wayfaring	252
Outfitters	252
How to choose an outfitter	252
Planning your own trip	253
Maps and guidebooks	254
How to devise your own long-distance route	255
Chapter 19 Backpacking	257
How to enjoy backpacking	258
Weight	258
How to reduce your baseweight	259
Food	261
Dehydrating food	261
Camping	262
Campsites	262
Wild camping	262
How to choose a pitch	263
Techniques with a tent	263
Hygiene & washing	264
Laundry	265

Contents

Backpacking in winter	266
Bibliography	267
Chapter 20 Backpacking kit and equipment	268
Definition of terms	268
Essential items	268
Shelters	268
Tents	269
Tarps and bashas	270
Bivvy bags	270
Care of shelters	271
Sleeping bags	271
Design	271
Down filling	272
Synthetic fillings	272
Temperature ratings	273
Care of sleeping bags	274
Sleeping mattresses and mats	274
Cooking stoves	275
Petrol stoves	276
Methylated spirit and alcohol stoves	276
Gas stoves	277
Multi-fuel stoves	277
Solid fuel stoves	277
Cookware, cutlery etc.	278
Rucksacks for backpacking	278
Ultra-lightweight rucksacks	279
Conventional rucksacks	279
Clothing and equipment list	280
Make your own gear	282
Purchasing backpacking gear	282
Bibliography	282

Contents

Chapter 21 Challenge walks, peak-bagging, and walking festivals	283
Challenge walks	283
Organized challenge walks	283
Anytime challenges	284
Peak-bagging	284
Walking festivals	286
Bibliography	286
Chapter 22 Clubs, walking with children, letterboxing & geocaching	288
Walking clubs	288
Special interest walking clubs	289
Walking for Health	290
Walking for the blind and partially sighted	290
Walking for the disabled	290
Walking with children	290
Letterboxing and geocaching	292
Bibliography	293
Chapter 23 Leading and guiding walks & walking tours	294
Qualities required of guides and leaders	294
Safety	295
Professional qualifications	296
Insurance	298
Planning a guided walk	298
Walking tours	302
Bibliography	303
Appendix 1 Useful organizations	305
Appendix 2 Magazines about walking	314
Appendix 3 The literature of walking	316
Appendix 4 The Ramblers' Association	319

Contents

Appendix 5 Public rights of way in England; the condition of the network	321
Appendix 6 Some hoary old myths examined	325
Tranter's variations to Naismith's Rule	325
Do wild animals dig up human faeces?	326
The Kinder Scout mass trespass; an alternative view	327
 Glossary	 329
 Index	 335